

PROSHOP NEWS

With the golf season finally under way the shop is filled to the brim with great new items for 2011!

Nike's Machspped Black, and VR Pro driver are being used on Tour by such players as Anthony Kim and Justin Leonard. The new Nike Pro Combo and VR Pro Cavity iron sets are also in stock and might be Nike's best offering yet. The all white TaylorMade R11 and Burner 2.0 drivers are immensely popular and have kept status as the number one driver on the PGA Tour every week from the beginning of the season. TaylorMade have also taken their best-selling iron of the last two seasons and given it a considerable upgrade. The Burner 2.0 irons have a great look and great feel and are certainly worth a look if you're in the market for a new set of irons! Titleist continues its tradition of excellent craftsmanship with the all new 910-series drivers, fairway woods, and hybrids. The 910-series offers the ability to adjust loft and lie angles of the club in order to create the perfect ball flight for your swing. Callaway's RAZR Hawk drivers, featuring the same composite technology found in Lamborghini sports cars are sure to be a hot seller this season as well!

Remember that we have demo clubs available in every brand. Don't hesitate to ask the pro shop staff if there is a certain item you'd like to try out. Golf town cannot offer you that !!

Titleist has once again improved its ProV1 and ProV1x golf balls for 2011 as they continue to lead and innovate the ball market. Nike's brand new 20XI golf ball is also now available! The 20XI improves on the older One Tour golf ball through new core technology that makes for more distance, without sacrificing control.

Speaking of control, knowing how far you need to hit the ball is just as important as the ball you're playing. The all new Bushnell Hybrid Rangefinder/GPS combines two of the more recent innovations in the golf industry into one easy-to-use item.

Spring lines of FootJoy, Adidas, Nike, Puma, and Lopez clothing are also out in the shop and if something with a Larters at St. Andrews crest is what you're after, be sure to check out the Antigua shirts, and Sun Ice outerwear that features the new Larters crest!

Lastly, don't forget our Golf Town pricing guarantee!
